TANEL PADAR & BAND

Tanel Padar is one of the most popular and most sought after artists in Estonia in recent decades.

Tanel has won more than 20 music awards and has participated in almost every noteworthy Estonian music project over the past 15 years.

In 2001 he won the Eurovision Song Contest together with Dave Benton.

In 2016 he was awarded 2 Gold Records and decorated with the Order of the White Star by the Estonian president Toomas Hendrik Ilves.

NOËP

Electronic-pop act from Tallinn, who is signed to Sony Sweden.

The Estonian newcomer aka singer-producer Andres Köpper, has already created quite a buzz around both his home country and on an international scale. NOËP has caught the attention of music lovers and industry professionals alike with his tracks reaching millions of plays on Spotify.

His live shows are as attention grabbing and emotive as the recorded music, where Köpper can be seen armed with a keyboard, laptop and launch pad; transforming himself into a one-man band.

LA LA LADIES

The Estonian female pop line-up La La Ladies has been active for 5 years. The members of the band are Kethi Uibomägi, Inga Tislar & Diana Varik.

The band's repertoire consists of their own-written songs and electro-swing arrangements of famous hits.

La La Ladies have participated in the Estonian Eurovision Song competition, cooperated with the Estonian fashion label Bastion to create their own clothing line, and are performing in over 100 concerts per year, as well as many TV broadcasts and programs.

OPENING NIGHT GALA

ONE OF THE MOST MEMORABLE SOCIAL HIGHLIGHTS OF THE FESTIVAL

Doltone House Darling Island is a spectacular waterfront venue with views of the Sydney Harbour Bridge and city skyline.

Ticket price includes a delicious 2-course buffet dinner, as well as performances from our festival musical headliners Tanel Padar, Noëp and La la Ladies, to get a taste of the upcoming full concerts.

It's a great opportunity to renew old friendships and make new acquaintances.

ANDRES MAIMIK PRESENTS "A BAD SCENE" 2018

An Estonian film director, film journalist, writer and actor Andres Maimik will be presenting and giving an open speech about the new film compilation "A Bad Scene" (2018).

"A Bad Scene" is a film compilation that consists of 5 short movies. Movies speak about the darker currents hiding in human relationships, situations, which are practically inescapable, in five different ways. Harassment, mental violence, manipulation, cornering – these topics are current in both politics as well as private sphere.

The movie has English subtitles!

ESTONIAN FILM

ESTONIAN THEATRE

WARM-HEARTED FAMILY PLAY WITH PUPPETS

Play "Kratimäng" is based on a story "Isand Teodori ettevõtmised" by Estonian writer Edgar Valter.

It's about a loner named Teodor, who finds a Kratt and decides to open a "lost and found" bureau. And so the adventure begins..

Directed by Margus Kasterpalu. Performed by Karol Kuntsel and Katrin Pärn.

The play is in Estonian!

FOLK FEST
